

THE BRIDGE

MACON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

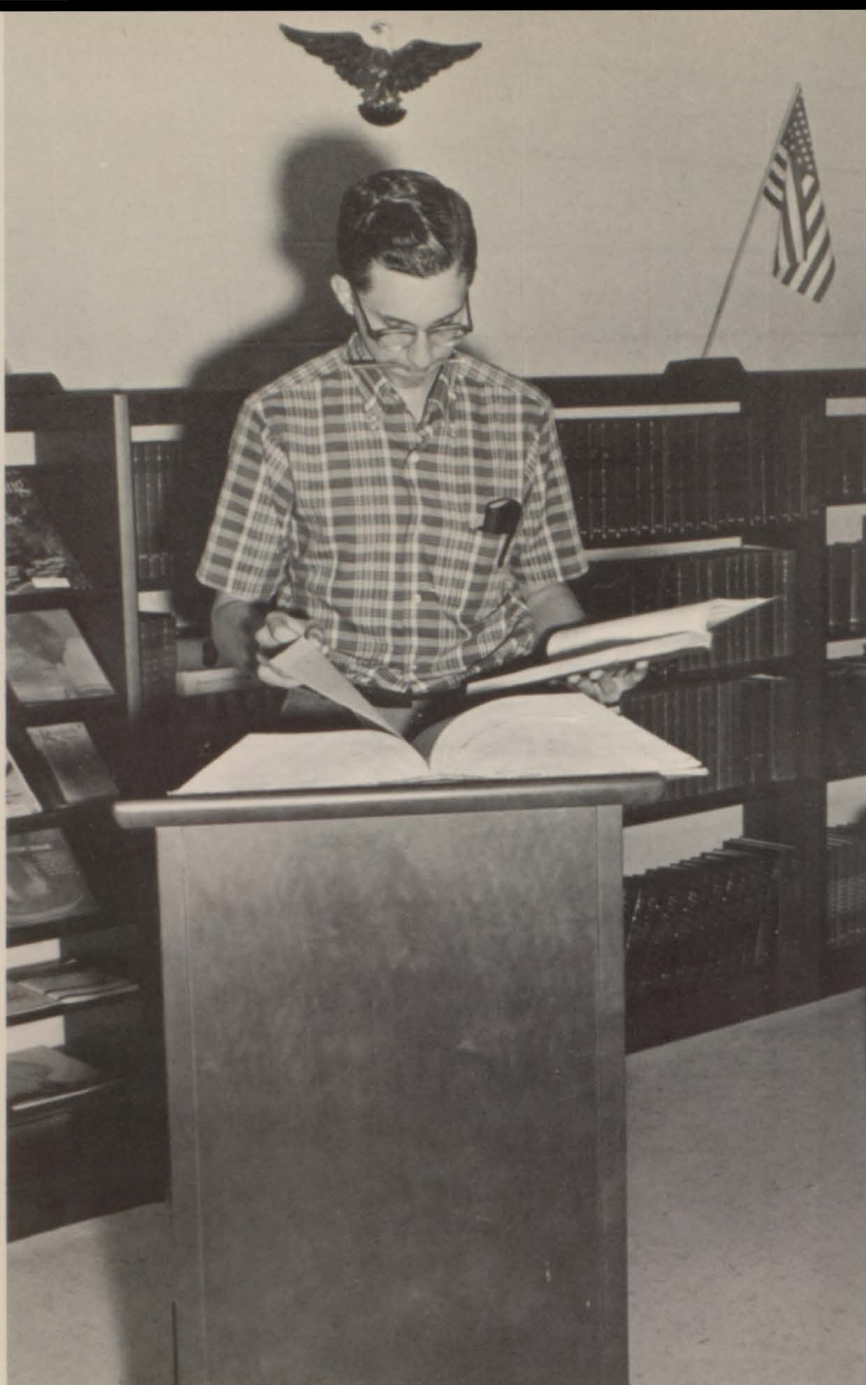

Montezuma, Georgia

Volume VIII 1967

Foreword

In the 1967 BRIDGE we have tried to present a true picture of Macon County High School. Here academic excellence is emphasized; athletics is an integral part of the school program; and, supervised student activities add just the right fillip to produce what we consider to be an exceptional school. This is made possible by a competent, interested faculty and a cooperative, enthusiastic student body working together harmoniously.

We hope you get the picture!

*It's not the staff or enrollment
Or just anything they say,
It's the close co-operation
That makes us win the day.
It's not the individual
Or the high school as a whole,
But the everlasting teamwork
Of every striving soul.
It is this host of attributes:*

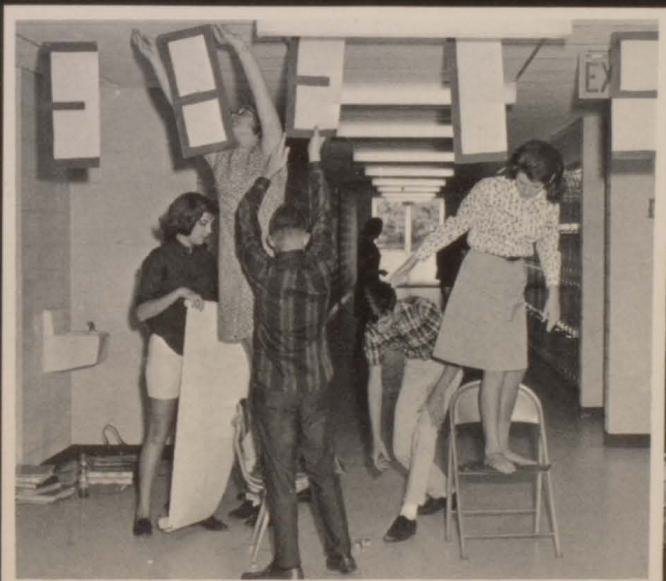

Self-discipline, Unsurpassed ability,

Courtesy,

Cooperation,

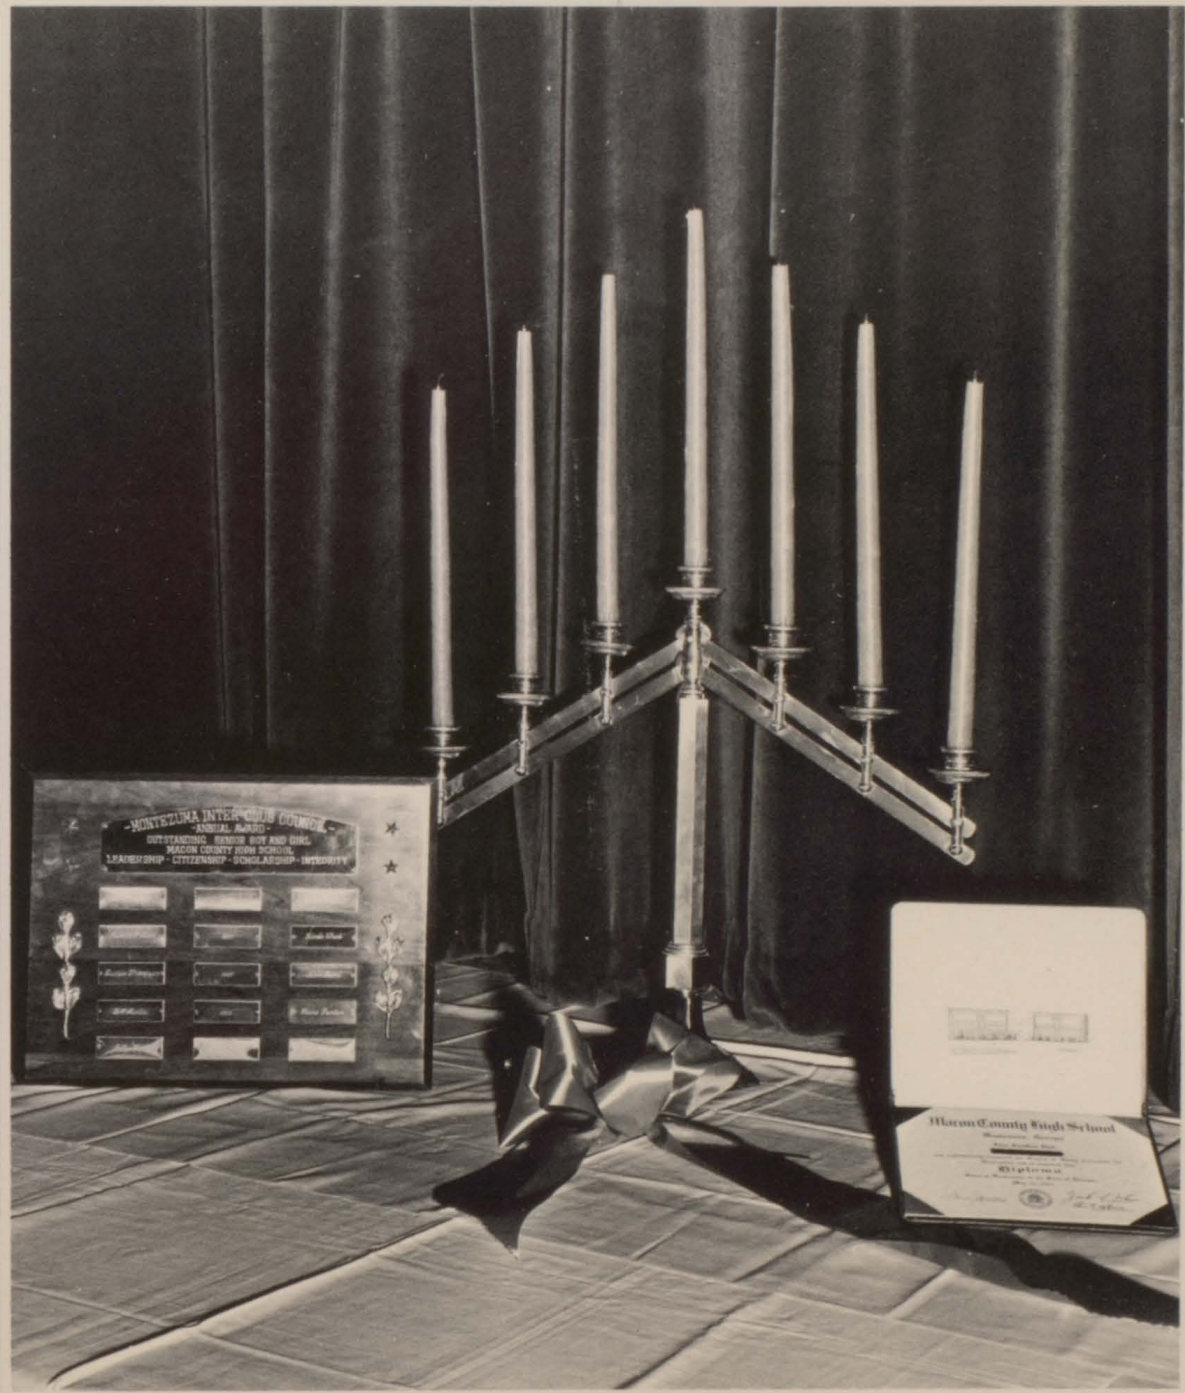

Enthusiasm,

Sheer Joy,

Superior Accomplishments

That unifies the whole . . .

It's the everlasting

M.C.H.S. teamwork!

Memo to Mr. Owens:

You have been a true friend to us. Because of your efforts the Student Council has become an important factor in our school. You have shown an interest in sports by helping to train our future Rebels; you have spent many nights scouting Varsity opponents. More important, you have taught us everyday, preparing us for tomorrow. In your classes you have made us realize that learning can be fun. None of us will ever forget three experiences . . . OUR jokes, YOUR humor, and the fun WE had together.

Your influence has been felt by the community as well as the student body. Your recent work with young people on the weekends has encouraged wholesome recreation. Your participation in church activities has been an inspiration to all.

In the midst of these activities you have found time to give your family love and attention.

How can we thank you?

As a token of our appreciation the Seniors of '67 dedicate this, OUR yearbook, to you.

Administration

Frank Fabian, Principal

A WORD
FROM
MR. FABIAN

The primary basis for a sound educational program must be in the cooperative efforts of administration, faculty, students, and community. I like to feel that we have this cooperative spirit in Macon County and that as a result, we have a superior school.

I would like to thank all groups for the splendid support that they have provided in the past and ask for your continued aid. In this way I feel sure that we will succeed in making Macon County High the type of institution in which we can all take great pride.

Sincerely,

Frank H. Fabian

Rodolph McLendon, right, retiring chairman of the Macon County Board of Education, is shown accepting a plaque from Dr. Lucius Dean, present chairman, on the occasion of Mr. McLendon's retirement in January, 1967. As a member of the County Board, Mr. McLendon faithfully and conscientiously served the children of Macon County for ten years. He acted as chairman for three years. Mr. McLendon, the last remaining member of the 1959 Board which consolidated the schools of Macon County, has taken a special interest in the establishment, growth and welfare of Macon County High School.

The graduating class of '67 has chosen from their number, representative students who show the accomplishments of the class. The students, so honored, were selected on the basis of a majority vote of the class and the approval of the faculty. Thus they represent the senior's choice, with the faculty's acceptance, of those students who have displayed outstanding or superior traits, qualities, or skills, throughout their high school years.

An Epilogue

To those of us who are Seniors, the pages we have turned in the 1967 BRIDGE have already become memories. The classes, the games, the honors, the awards are all associations of our high school days.

Many teams - scholastic, athletic, musical, spiritual - have worked together as a greater team to give us a successful year. Remembering always the importance of the individual, we have learned the value of combining our efforts in many good causes. As we go out into life, what we gain from our experiences will depend on us as individuals. Our lives will broaden and we will join other teams, contributing our efforts to win the Great Game of Life. Playing and working together has prepared us to respect the rules, to give credit where credit is due, to win with modesty, to lose with dignity, and to recognize the fact that when the shouting dies down and the headlines fade, the rewards of Teamwork pay off for a lifetime in character.

"Proudly we stand together to sing of Macon County High the Red and Gray will lead the way; our zeal will never die."

Now as we go our separate ways, the words of our Alma Mater will guide our lives. All of us will join different teams but the Macon County spirit and zeal will help us to have richer and fuller lives.

Good luck to each of you,

Dale Derrick, Editor

Dale Derrick
